report to the listener

Dear Listener,

Thank you very much for your responses to our listener survey in the previous Folio. More than 300 of you took the time and energy to answer the survey. Our next step is to compile the information. So far, we've formatted and tested the database required to input your responses. This database is installed on two computers. If any of you has the interest, facility and patience to enter data into the base, please call me at (818) 985-2711.

Alan Fong

Thank you, too, for your generous support during the June Fund Drive. The rhythm of that support came slowly at first (creating a bit of agony and a distinct adrenaline flow); then that rhythm accelerated and eased the pain while the adrenaline remained. By the end, the staff felt happy and grateful. By last count, we had reached $218,000 in dollars pledged. Now the hard part is to fulfill your promises!

Now about programming. KPFK and Pacifica are striving mightily to bring election coverage to you. The effort has stretched the ranks of existing volunteers quite thin. One consequence is we lack the requisite numbers of people to cover the L.A. story: its rebuilding, its future, inevitable conflicts of interest, gang truces, enterprise zones ad infinitum.

An ongoing and important story awaits a team to tell it. I'm applying for a grant to try and assemble that team and I'm asking those of you who read this report to consider if you can make a personal contribution to the effort. Not money (well almost) so much as time and expertise: if you know about federal funds flows to cities; if you conduct dispute resolutions; if you're involved in working with gangs; if you are a developer, or urban planner with a strong sense of ethics; the list to provide alternatives to business as usual abound in looking at the rebuilding of L.A.

If this participation appeals to you, please send a letter which states your interest/expertise to KPFK, Box A-6, 3729 Cahuenga Boulevard West, North Hollywood, CA 91604.

Thank you one and all for your physical presence, financial contributions and moral support. Over the next few months, in addition to our continuing programs, we shall map plans for future programming. We intend both to build and diversify our audience. Stay tuned.

Editor's Note: Apologies are in order for the errors in the last Folio. I hope they didn't confuse the sense of what we were trying to convey. Thanks for your patience, and for tuning in — JS.

The Pacifica Foundation provides the KPFK mailing list to an organization which in turn rents or exchanges, on behalf of the Foundation, mailing lists of other non-profit organizations. If you object to having your name and address used in this way, please write to our Subscriptions Department, enclosing a recent Folio label, and we will omit you from our exchange list. If your request has already been entered into the computer, the letters "NX" will appear on the top line of your mailing label, to the right of the expiration date.

BLACK AUGUST

Historically, the month of August is filled with significant African-American events. This year we celebrate with a 14-part series entitled Black Power Origins, which looks at the contributions of black leaders during the first half of this century. (Please check the Featured Programming listings throughout the month.) The series includes three programs on the Marcus Garvey Movement, which will air the week we remember his birthday (8/17-8/21).

Other rare tapes from the Pacifica Archives highlight Black August: an interview with Black South African student leader Steven Biko (8/12, 8:00-8:30 pm) recorded shortly before his assassination, a conversation between Malcolm X and Bayard Rustin (8/26, 8:00-9:00 pm); the funeral of murdered civil rights worker James Chaney (8/5, 3:30-5:00 pm), and a speech by Dr. Ralph Bunche (8/20, 7:00-8:15).

Historic African-American culture will be featured by Mario Casetta and Karole Selmon with tributes to Billie Holiday (8/3, 8/5, 8/10, 9:30-11:30 am) and Bessie Smith (8/31, 9:30-11:30 am), and Jeannie Pool who commemorates the works of Eva Jessye and other composer/conductors (8/10, noon-2 pm).

PACIFICA NATIONAL PROGRAMMING — LIVE FROM HOUSTON

As with the Democrats, our coverage of the Republican National Convention is heralded by a National Town Hall Meeting from the same city. Reproductive Rights and the Status of Women surveys issues including the reproductive rights landscape, examines the strategies the pro- and anti-choice Republicans have planned for the convention, and the status of women in the workplace. What are the forces that keep women's pay less than men's, and limit women's work to the pink collar ghetto. Larry Bensky hosts a panel of experts in this two hour Town Hall Meeting (8/26, 4:00-6:00 pm).

Larry Bensky and the Pacifica team will be at the convention, bringing us daily reports and commentary on the proceedings (8/17-8/21, 4:00-6:00 am, 6:30-8:30 am, 11:30-1:30 pm) News follows the 6:30 and 11:30 broadcasts.

HOT SPOTS

Just before the Republican Convention, we cover the Peace and Freedom Party's California Convention. KPFFK will review the controversial issues inside the party, as well as the party's evolving election strategy (8/13, 7:00-8:30 pm).

The 72nd anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment finds American women still tangled in the politics of choice. America on Trial: Planned Parenthood vs. Robert P. Casey is a dramatization of the trial that led to the Supreme Court's most recent decision on reproductive rights (8/26, noon-3:00 pm).

Are the two traditional sides of the political spectrum as easily defined today as they have been in the past? Left Meets Right is a series of panel discussions on different issues, as well as on the current state of the previously accepted poles (8/1, 8/15, 9/5, 9/19, 10:00-mid).

THE L.A. UPRISING AND BEYOND

What happened in Los Angeles and why? What does the future hold? These are the kinds of questions we have tried to — and continue to — explore. Tune in to Race, Lies and Videotape, a town hall meeting organized by Fairness and Accuracy in Reporting (FAIR) to discuss media coverage of the protests and violence after the Rodney King verdicts (8/7, 10:00-mid); Seoul to Soul is a gathering of artists from Korean and African-American communities who come together to present poetry and performance art (8/8, 10:00-mid); The Other Leadership presents three interviews with members of the Crips and Bloods (9/3, 9/10, 9/25, 7:00-7:30 pm).

ROSH HASHANAH

We observe the turning of another year with Challenges to Contemporary Judaism and Search for the Buried Past: The Hidden Jews of New Mexico and Rekindling the Spirit. The former (9/25, 7:30-8:30 pm; 9/26, 9/29 10:00-mid) presents highlights from the 1990 Tikkun Conference, including highlights from such panels as Jews and ethnicity in Los Angeles; media and the arts; Israel and Jews in a post cold-war world. The latter (9/24, 7:30-8:30; 9/28, 3:30-4:30) examines the lives and heritage of New Mexican families who have hidden their true identities since the Spanish Inquisition.

As has been the custom at KPFFK, we will of course present Jewish literature and folklore in the Morning Reading (week of 9/21, 11:30-noon), including a special performance of the Stories of Rabbi Rebbe Nachman, read by Avraham Greenburg (9/28, 11:30-noon).

Other special features of the season include RoshHaShana Through a Feminist Eye (9/28, 9:00-9:25 am) and As Sweet as Honey (9/25, 3:00-3:30 pm). Mario Casetta and Henry Slucki are also planning a marvelous musical feast for the occasion (9/28, 9:30-11:30).

BRIDGING THE GAP

The Homeless Writers' Coalition (HWC) is an organization dedicated to bridging the gap between the homeless community and the mainstream of this society. The majority of the members has been or is still homeless. Because of the HWC's unique relationship with the homeless population, its organizers realize that homeless people are not just drug addicts, alcoholics or mentally ill. In fact, most can and will function as well as any person, given the limited power they have over their own lives in today's society.

It is with great pride that KPFFK joins forces with HWC to produce a series of programs entitled Bridging the Gap. The intention of the series is to make people from all walks of life aware of the road to homelessness, the real problems of people living on the streets, and how economics affect the homeless, the near homeless, and the mainstream of society (8/12, 8/19, 8/26, 9/2, 9/9, 4:00-5:00 pm; 9/16, 7:30-8:30 am).

DAYS TO REMEMBER

Brazilian Independence Day/Labor Day (9/7): Brazil 1992 (9:00-noon); Rising Waters: Militant Drama of the '30s is a four-part series that looks at the origin and development of theatre in the ethnic communities and social movements of the 20s and 30s (noon-4:15 pm); Mario's Many Worlds of Music presents a special day of music (4:15-6:30).

Anniversary of the Chicano Moratorium (8/29): KPFFK Live from the African Marketplace brings you the celebration from the Cultural Faire in Rancho La Cienega Park (4:00-6:00 pm), Enfoque Latino Moratorium special (6:15-8:00 pm), Break the Blackout is the second of five programs exploring the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Columbus to this hemisphere offering an alternate view of life since 1492 (8:00-mid).

Hiroshima/Nagasaki: Morning Readings (week of 8/3, 11:30-noon); Memorial (8/6, 7:00-7:30 pm).

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

KPFA's 1992 Telecommunications Radio Project begins with Listening In: Making and Breaking Electronic Secrets in the Computer Age which looks privacy over computer lines and the government's wish to restrict the use of computer codes that it can not decipher (9/23, noon-1:00 pm); and Techno-Kids: The Significance of Modern Telecommunications Technologies — It's Child's Play, a segment which explores how children use computers, video games and telephone services (9/30, noon-1:00 pm).

JUST A NOTE

Focus on the Americas will have alternate hosts while Blase Bonpane campaigns for California State Office.

RADIO'S TOWN HALL
MEETINGS
4:00-6:00 pm

Reproductive Rights and the Status of Women On the eve of the Republican Convention, we'll center our attention on the status of American women with this Town Hall Meeting broadcast from Houston, Texas. With the Supreme Court's latest decision on abortion rights, the national debate has escalated another notch. Even the Republican Party is deeply divided on the question: pro-choice Republicans promise to fight the anti-choice language in the Republican Party Platform.

During the first hour we'll survey the reproductive rights landscape. We'll look at the campaign strategies of the pro- and anti-choice Republicans, and the effects on poor and young women around the country who need abortions.

The second hour will concentrate on the status of women in the workplace. Since Anita Hill's revelations during the Clarence Thomas Confirmation Hearings, what progress has there been in dealing with sexual harassment? We'll look at the forces that keep women's pay less than men's, limit women's work to the "pink collar ghetto" and stop her with a "glass ceiling." And we'll look at the politicians' offerings.

Panelists include Adriana Chamyan, a founding member and presiding National Student Coordinator of Students Organizing Students; Barbara Otto, National Director of Program and Public Affairs for 9 to 5, the National Association of Working Women and the Working Women Education Fund; Ralph Reed, Jr, Executive Director of the Christian Coalition; Congressman Chris Smith, 6-term Republican for the 4th District in New Jersey; Ann Stone, National Chair of Republicans for Choice Political Action Committee; and Patricia J. Williams, Associate Professor of Law and Women's Studies at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

Hosted by Larry Bensky, the program is Executive Produced by Bill Wax and Produced by Ginny Z. Berson.

That "human hearing extends to about 20,000 cycles per second" is one of those rarely questioned factoids that has been the basis of innumerable audio system designs, including present and future digital systems. In the light of recent research indicating physiological response to much higher frequencies, and the presence of significant overtones in music out to 100 kHz and beyond, James Boyk argues that the debates over how much is enough ought to be kept wide open. AMERICA ON TRIAL: PLANNED PARENTHOOD OF SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA VS. ROBERT P. CASEY
Noon-3:00 pm

On the anniversary of Women's Suffrage, we present this dramatization of the trial that led to the Supreme Court's most recent ruling on a woman's right to choose. In 1989, the state of Pennsylvania passed what was at the time the most restrictive abortion control act in the country. Just as quickly as Governor Robert Casey signed the bill into law, a coalition of groups spearheaded by Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania filed for an injunction to prevent the law from taking effect. A temporary injunction was granted pending the outcome of a trial. The plaintiffs argued at this trial that the law was unconstitutional with respect to Roe vs. Wade. The program ends with a summation of events since the trial. Produced by Bob Alls.

BREAK THE BLACKOUT: 500 YEARS OF RESISTANCE

Today we bring you the second of five four-hour programs exploring the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Columbus to this hemisphere. While the rest of the world celebrates his arrival, this program offers an inciteful and informative alternative view of life in the Americas since 1492. By focusing on different nations and cultures, and their confrontation with European society and values, we will illuminate 500 years of spiritual and cultural resistance. Break the Blackout is produced by Coyote Radio producer Corey Dubin and American Indian Airwaves' producer Marcus Lopez.

The seductively teeny Minidisc from Sony and its quasi-rival, the Digital Compact Cassette (DCC) from Philips, owe their existence to a technique called bit-rate reduction, which draws certain conclusions about the limitations of human hearing and then omits to encode what is presumably not needed. How well do these schemes really work? A non-booster, Bart Locanthi, discusses his investigations with host Peter Sutheim. Rebroadcast from July 19.

Pitch: A=415.) "Das Wohitemperiete Klavier, Buch II." And Rhythm Safari brings us Cheb Mami with his famous Algerian "opinion" music created by depressed shepherds at the turn of the century and then suppressed by the government, hidden in the ghettos of Algeria...shades of the Casbah. Other ethnic offerings like "Raga Jog," ragas, and Antioch Liturgy from the Syrian Orthodox Church. And that's for openers!

RISEING WATERS: MILITANT
DRAMA OF THE THIRTIES

This four-part series of plays, music and commentary on the New Theatre League and the WPA Federal Theatre Project was produced in 1979 by KPFA's Bill Shields.

Part One: The Amateur Theatre of 1930-1935 looks at the origin of the New Theatre in the ethnic communities and social movements of the 20s and 30s. This program examines the influence of European theatrical advances, initially at the "pamphlet and cartoon style," and later at the mid-decade maturation of the movement as it settled more fully into the fabric of American working and middle class life.

Part Two: The Shift to Realism, a Broader Reach and the Labor Theatre. Waiting for Lefty transformed theatrical styles nationwide. New Theatre actors said no to Hitler; CIO organizers went to drama school, and garment workers created the second longest musical revue in New York stage history: Pins and Needles.

Part Three: the New Theatre and the Professional Stage From the Theatre Union's Stevedore early in the decade, to Marc Blitzstein's 1937 cantata, The Cradle Will Rock, a broader segment of American society found its way onto the stage in the 30s than ever before. All post-war theatre in this country grew out of a synthesis of strong social themes, international creative advances, and home-grown experimentation. This program will examine all facets of the decade's theatre life, and will take a look at the WPA-sponsored Federal Theatre as well.

Part Four: "Waiting for Lefty" by Clifford Odets The series concludes with this remarkable piece, which stood at the center of all the many creative currents of the New Theatre movement. As Group Theatre director Harold Clurman wrote concerning the legendary opening night of his company's Broadway production of the play, U.S. Public School System.

The first hour will look at the real problems in education: Is the problem money? Are the school districts top-heavy with administrators? Are teachers competent?

The second hour seeks possible solutions for schools: Involving parents in the process; making education valuable; How do we create good education?

Panelists will include: Carlos Garcia, Assistant Superintendent of Schools for Fresno, CA; Faustine Jones-Wilson, Acting Dean, School of Education at Howard University; Bill Ayers, Professor, School of Education at University of Illinois, and special assistant of the Mayor of Chicago for education.

(Other speakers were not confirmed at press time.)

Larry Bensky hosts. This program is executive produced by Bill Wax and produced by Ginny Z. Berson.

BREAK THE BLACKOUT: 500 YEARS OF RESISTANCE

Today we bring you the third of five four-hour programs exploring the 500th anniversary of the arrival of Columbus to this hemisphere. While the rest of the world celebrates his arrival, this program offers an inciteful and informative alternative view of life in the Americas since 1492. By focusing on different nations and cultures, and their confrontation with European society and values, we will illuminate 500 years of spiritual and cultural resistance. Break the Blackout is produced by Coyote Radio producer Corey Dubin and American Indian Airwaves' producer Marcus Lopez.

information are entered in computers and stored in electronic form. Since we have no way of insuring that our private communications will remain private — just ask Ollie North — there's a widespread interest in encoding or encrypting electronic messages so that they can only be translated by the intended recipients. It's an idea that mightily aggravates the U.S. government which wants to make it illegal for regular citizens to use any computer code that the Feds can't read. Of course, citizen groups might worry that the government's own increased use of theoretically unbreakable computer codes might lead to undecipherable abuses of the public trust.

7:30-8:30 pm THE HIDDEN JEWS OF NEW MEXICO

7:30-8:00 In 1988, Search for the Buried Past: the Hidden Jews of New Mexico introduced radio listeners to the extraordinary story of a secret heritage shared by many New Mexicans who have grown up in families that have hidden their true identity since the Spanish Inquisition of 1492.

8:00-8:30 Rekindling the Spirit is rooted in the upheavals of 1492 when the Spanish Inquisition forced more than 200,000 Jews to choose between expulsion or forced conversion to Catholicism. This program examines the realizations of present-day descendants of the original conversos and settlers of New Mexico. Rekindling the Spirit examines the renewed sense of history, growing community and the special pride of these New Mexicans in their unique religious and cultural identity.
